

Types of Animals

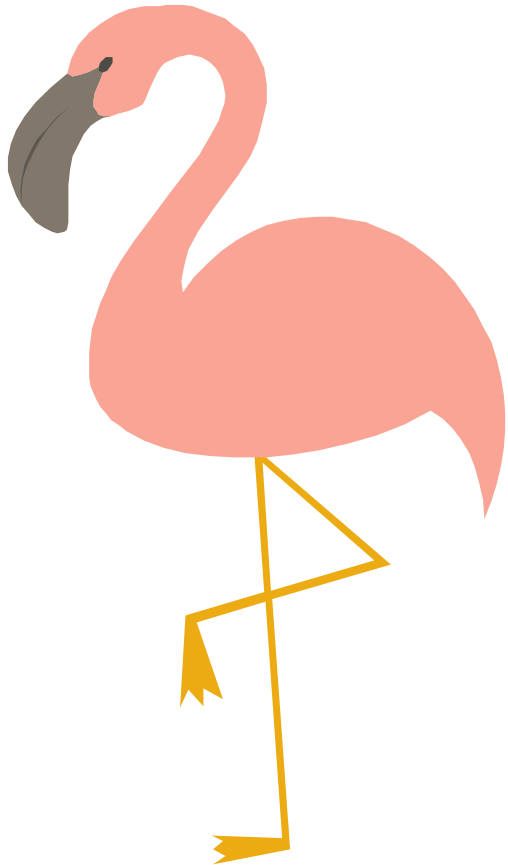

Mammals

- have fur or hair
- breathe with lungs
- feed their young milk
- endothermic

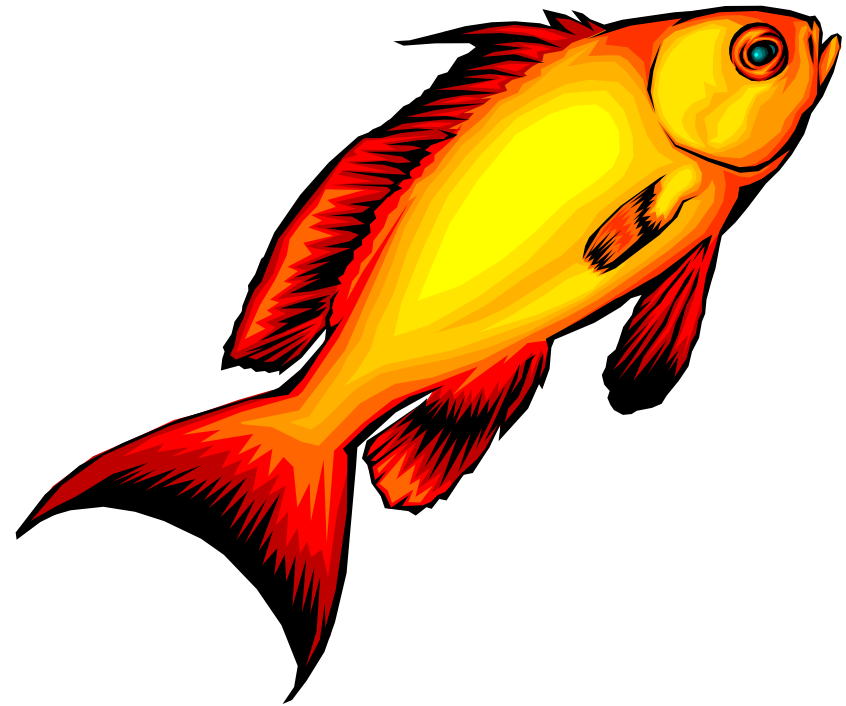

Birds

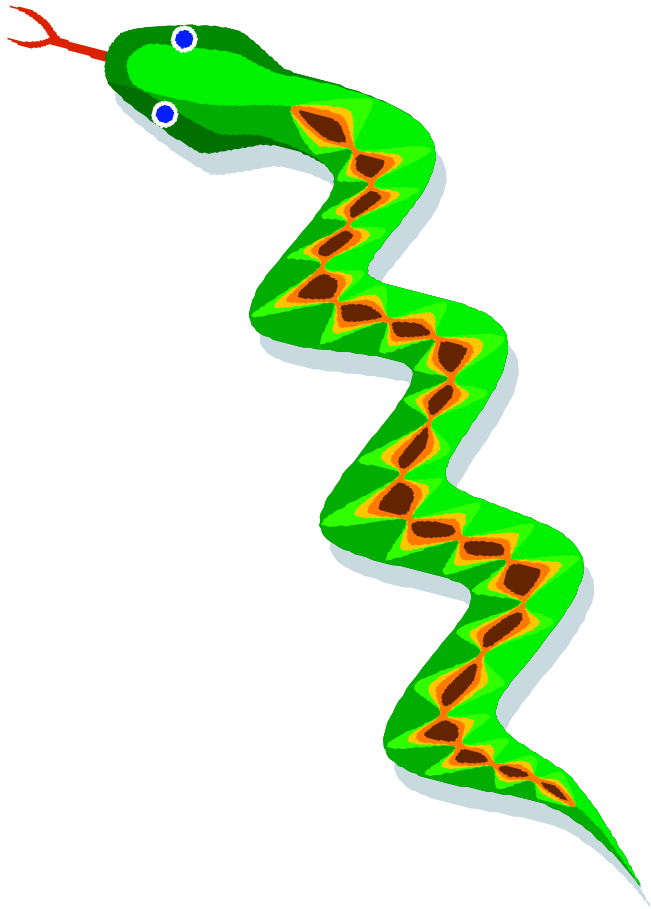

- have two legs
- most fly with wings
- have feathers
- hatch from eggs
- endothermic

Fish

- live only in water
- breathe with gills
- are born live or hatch from eggs
- ectothermic

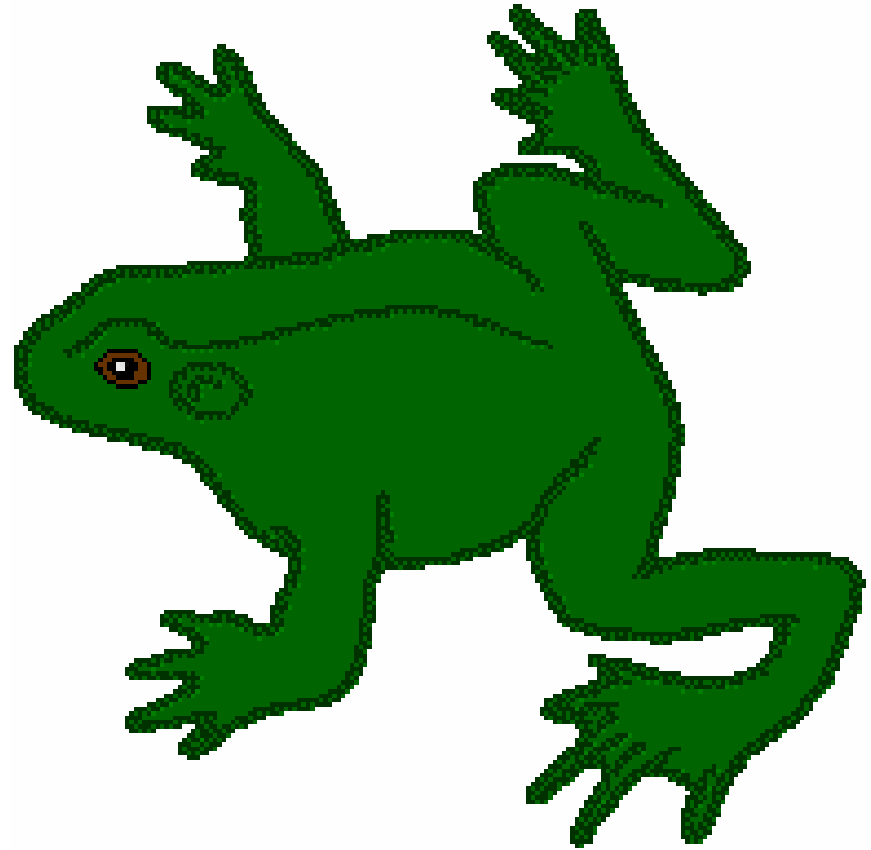

Reptiles

- animals that have scales
- have lungs for breathing
- hatch from eggs
- ectothermic

Amphibians

- animals that usually live first on water and later on land
- lay eggs
- have moist skin
- ectothermic

Who am I?

- I have two legs.
- I fly with wings.
- I hatch from an egg.

Who am I?

- I have fur or hair.
- I feed my young milk.
- I breathe with lungs.

Who am I?

- I live only in water.
- I breathe with gills.
- My young are born live or hatch from eggs.

Who am I?

- I can live in both water and on land.
- I have moist, slimy skin.
- My young hatch from eggs.

Who am I?

- I have lungs to breathe.
- I have scales covering my body.
- I hatch from an egg.