Let us bring the Zoo to you with a Virtual Zoomobile program! Our Virtual Zoomobile programs offer a valuable experiential learning opportunity for students learning from home or at school.

All programs include interaction with a Zoo educator and 3 live “animal interviews” with our ambassador animals and are designed to support your students’ learning. Whether you are a teacher, parent, or group leader, our virtual zoomobiles are a great way to keep your community connected to the Zoo!

Cost: $85.00 per class
Length: Approximately 45 minutes

Includes a story followed by a meet and greet with an animal ambassador. Story choices (we ask that you pick your top two):

- The Mitten by Jan Brett
  (features a hedgehog or rabbit)
- Verdi by Jane Cannon
  (features a snake)
- Yertle the Turtle by Dr. Seuss
  (features a turtle)
- A Color of His Own by Leo Lionn
  (features a lizard)
- Don’t let the Pigeon Drive the Bus by Mo Willems
  (features a dove)

Cost: $65 per class
Length: Approximately 20 minutes

Virtual Zoomobiles and Storytimes will be delivered using a video conference platform called Zoom! Participants will need access to a computer/tablet/other zoom compatible device with video, sound, and microphone capabilities.

For more information or to book a Virtual Zoomobile, please contact our Manager of School Programs, Andrea Stein via email at astein@rwpzoo.org