<small>*This also doubles as the minimum deposit required today.</small>

Tips for choosing your timeslots:

- The Group Sales Department will assign locations based on venue availability and your expected party size.
- Nearly all venues are outdoor tented locations.
- Most venues can accommodate up to 80 guests, though one venue does have a 55-person maximum.
- Hosts can access the space 30 minutes before the rental time to set up, and they'll have 30 minutes afterwards to pack up personal items. If you'd like additional setup time, please upgrade to a longer rental for a stress-free experience!
- Because all events are limited by the zoo's operating hours, we are not able to offer different event times or other extension options. Please choose carefully - the duration can't be adjusted later.

We will do our best to honor requests. If you have a location preference, please write it here: _____

Step 3:
Planning your guestlist and purchasing admissions
(REQUIRED)

The zoo will charge the host daytime zoo admission for every guest attending the event. A guest is considered anyone over age 1 (includes both adults and children).

- Child admissions (ages 2-12) are $12.95 each
- Adult admissions (ages 13-61) are $18.95 each
- Senior admissions (ages 62+) are $14.95 each
- Toddlers ages 1 and under are always free, but please include them with your headcounts for attendance purposes.
- Parties can welcome up to either 50 or 80 guests, depending on the venue.
- Remember, the hosts and any guests of honors are included in the headcount and must have admission paid for them.

Your final headcount is due 7 days before the event. At that time, you'll submit the exact breakdown of adults, seniors, children, and toddlers as well as a guestlist. Regrettably memberships cannot be accepted for entry and the host must use this pricing to pay for each guest in attendance. Guests cannot pay the zoo for their own event access.

What is your estimated headcount? ___ 5 – 30 guests ___ 31 – 50 guests ___ 51 – 80 guests

Step 5:
Choosing delicious menus for your event
(REQUIRED)

Complete your event with a hassle-free experience from the zoo's on-site concessions partner, SSA. Choose from classic picnic specials, sandwich buffets, or cozy comfort foods. Don't forget to add on savory sides, appetizers, or sweet treats too! To learn more or start planning, contact SSA's Catering Manager, Lori Piscopio (LoriPiscopio@thessagroup.com) today!

Choose your preferences below:

- ___ I am most interested in designing a custom catering menu (the host pays for all guest meals).
- ___ I am interested in serving alcohol at this event, which means hiring the zoo's on-site caterer to open bars.
- ___ I do not want any catering services (additional fees and requirements may apply, consult Group Sales for more information).
- ___ OTHER (Please describe): _____

Outside caterers and outside food are not permitted during daytime events, but you are in good hands with SSA's skilled chefs and culinary magicians!

Step 6:
Add on customizations
(OPTIONAL)

___ Favor Bags ($8 each): Features an assortment of safari-themed goodies like a slinky, coloring book, tattoos, small plush animal, and more!

Favor bags: _____ @ $8 each = _____

___ Face Painting & Henna Art (Starts at $200): Schedule a private artist to come work their magic for the first hour of your event! Choose from an array of beautiful designs, all presented to you in a look book at the event. An additional face painter or henna artist will automatically be added for every 30 children, as this is the estimated number of guests that can be serviced during the designated timeframe. Please be accurate with your headcounts of expected painters (and therefore estimated children), as it may be harder to add extra painters once the event draws closer. This is a 60-minute experience taking place during the first hour of your event. Available April – October.

Face painter (basic designs): _____ painters (1 for every 30 kids) @ $200 each = _____

Face painter (premium designs): _____ painters (1 for every 30 kids) @ $225 each = _____

Henna artists: _____ painters (1 for every 30 kids) @ $225 each = _____

Step 7:
Get WILD: Add on an animal encounter
(OPTIONAL)

Animal lovers unite! Choose your preferred encounter below.

___ Double Animal encounter ($175): Features a 20-minute meet-and-greet with two education ambassador animals. The organization will also receive a special gift from your ambassador animals! Please choose your top four animal choices of the following:

bunny, armadillo, skink, large snake, tortoise, or opossum. We make every effort to accommodate your first choice, but this cannot be guaranteed.

- First choice animal: _____
- Second choice animal: _____
- Third choice animal: _____
- Fourth choice animal: _____

___ Animal encounter ($100): Features a 15-minute meet-and-greet with one education ambassador animal. The organization will also receive a special gift from your ambassador animal! We make every effort to accommodate your first choice, but this cannot be guaranteed.

- First choice animal: _____
- Second choice animal: _____

Step 8:
Reserving audio visual services
(OPTIONAL)

Looking to enhance your event with audio-visual services? Request equipment here.

___ No, I do not need AV equipment for my event.

___ Yes, I would like to rent the zoo's AV equipment for the event (FILL OUT SECTION BELOW)

If you choose to include AV services, please fill out the following:

1. Rental cost:

___ Check here if you have selected a 90-minute or 3-hour venue rental. This would incur a $175 flat-rate for AV services.

___ Check here if you have selected a 5-hour or 6-hour venue rental. This would incur a $450 flat-rate for AV services.

2. Please CIRCLE which of the following services you would like to request:

Microphone Speakers Podium Laptop

Internet access (select areas only)

Projector & projector screen (indoor areas only)

3. General terms: Equipment is loaned for on-site use on a first-come, first-served basis. The host will need to provide a USB device with their files/presentation to the zoo at least 10 days before the event. This is so the technicians can test/confirm compatibility. (We recommend adding this date to your calendars). If one is not provided at that time, the zoo cannot confirm compatibility and will not be responsible. As you plan, please note the zoo is an outdoor, open-air venue and so it can be difficult to see presentations in daylight. It will also be difficult to showcase a projector-screen presentation to more than 80 guests at a time. A Group Sales representative will follow up with additional questions and confirmation that the services you've requested will be available. Please wait for a confirmation that your requested equipment was reserved.

Step 9:
What's next? Getting ready for your zoo event!
(INFORMATION ONLY)

How can I book my event?

- All events are scheduled on a first-come, first-serve basis. Both a completed contract and the deposit payment are required before the zoo can schedule your event.

- The cost of the events you select in Section 2 is the non-refundable deposit amount required to book.

Tell me about the venue!

- Most events take place in our outdoor tented areas, which are already outfitted with either picnic tables or tables/chairs for your convenience. We'll assign you a great location based on your estimated party size and the zoo's availability.

What should I bring?

- Please note, if ordering catering through our on-site partner, SSA, no outside food, except for cake or cupcakes, is allowed, for liability reasons.
- If not ordering catering, you'll want to note that this event requires hosts to bring all their own items, including table coverings, food, cake, and party goods (plates, cups, napkins, utensils). Outside catering services are not permitted for daytime outings, but you can bring in prepared foods yourself. As you plan, do note that refrigeration and storage aren't available, so you'll want to come equipped with coolers or foods that aren't temperature sensitive.
- Most families let the zoo speak for itself, but some prefer to add some custom flair – you can do whichever. If you customize your event, feel free to bring in banners, centerpieces, games, and more! We just ask that you remember a limited number of items (balloons, confetti, and pinatas) are not allowed on grounds for animal safety reasons. Hosts cannot bring alcohol into the zoo.
- The zoo provides a pushcart to help hosts transport their belongings to each event.
- Please be advised that zoo staff may not be authorized/permitted to transport items (particularly valuable or delicate items, including gifts or cake) through the zoo. This is to ensure all items reach their destination securely and to your satisfaction.
- Due to logistical limitations, daytime outings cannot have outside vendors (including but not limited to entertainment companies, magicians, costumed characters, performers, and outside caterers) at their zoo event. Violation of this policy results in a minimum $200 fine, due in full on the event day.

Do I have time for setup and breakdown?

- Hosts can access the venue 30 minutes before their event to set up the space. Hosts also have 30 minutes afterwards to pack up personal items. If you'd like more time, we encourage you to schedule one of the longer event rental options we have available!

Arrival information for all event attendees:

- Guests are welcome to arrive whenever the zoo opens to the public (either 9 AM or 10 AM, depending on the time of year – consult rwpzoo.org for exact information).
 - When guests arrive, they should check-in at the designated check-in table, located at the main entrance. A zoo employee will staff this check-in table for you.
 - We'll give each guest over age 1 (including both adults and children) a wristband and a map advise them to meet at the venue at the event's start time.
 - When you (the host) arrive, let the check-in attendant know you are the host, and the attendant will radio the ambassador. The ambassador will be right out with a cart to help you transport any items to the venue. This ambassador will stay with you through the event to ensure everything is running smoothly and to answer any questions you may have. As host, you are able to set up the venue 30 minutes before the event. You will also have 30 minutes afterwards to pack up personal items.
- If you plan an afternoon event, definitely tell guests to come early so they can explore exhibits before the event starts, as there may not be time after the event. Just note that the venue won't be accessible until your scheduled event time. Arrival can be as early as the zoo's opening.
- Like any other destination, it is recommended event attendees allot ample time for driving, parking, and reaching the main entrance, especially on busy days. As you plan, know that some parking spaces can be 10-15 minutes from the main entrance, then add a few minutes for check-in, and then a 10-15 minute walk to the venue. This estimate doesn't include time to park or find a parking space, and lots can fill quickly on popular days. The zoo does not reschedule or extend parties to accommodate traffic, crowded lots, walking delays, or any other similar reasons.

Step 10:

General Policies
(INFORMATION ONLY)

- All payments are non-refundable. Events are non-reschedulable. Payments cannot be exchanged and/or applied to other zoo services.
 - RWPZ understands there are times the host may have to cancel their celebration in advance. If you cancel at least 11 days before the event, you will not owe any additional fees, though your payments will be non-refundable. If you cancel 10 days or less before your event, you will owe the full balance (calculated by your contract choices). Hosts must pay the full balance within 3 days of cancellation or additional fees accrue at a rate of $10/day.
- Hosts must purchase event admission for every guest, per zoo policy (member admissions not available/accepted for event attendees). Admission is valid for event day only and cannot be reapplied or transferred to a different day. There is no reimbursement or "rain check" tickets for guests who are not able to attend.
- Encounters are booked on a first-come, first-serve basis and two weeks' advanced notice is recommended. Please inquire about availability on specific dates, as they are generally not available on holidays or holiday weekends. The zoo reserves the right to substitute or change animals. For health and safety reasons, encounters cannot take place unless and until all food is put away. Please note, due to current regulations, all encounters will be touchless for the safety of our guests, staff, and education ambassador animals. Encounters take place during the last 15 minutes of the event, and all food must be put away at this time. Encounters can only take place in temperatures between 65°F - 80°F.

Encounters will be cancelled if forecasts are outside that range (the handler will make this call; all effort is done to decide this in a timely manner). When possible, we will provide an alternate indoor encounter location so your experience can take place as planned. RWPZ reserves the right to cancel any animal encounter for any reason, including but not limited to temperature.

- Everyone should bring a mask that covers their face and mouth. For animal health reasons, some animal experiences or exhibits require ALL visitors to wear masks (regardless of vaccination status or medical condition).
- All checks are subject to a $25 returned check fee. Returned checks must pay original balance plus fee within 24 hours of rejection, or they incur an additional fine of $10/day.

The host must provide the following one week before the event:

- Your final headcount, including an exact breakdown of adults and children
- A guestlist detailing everyone's name as well as their age category (adult, child, toddler).
- Permission to provide the card on file for the remaining balance, due 1 week before the event. The final balance is based on the contract selections as well as any updated information provided (like the headcount). If you do not have a card on file, you may add one or pay with cash or check. Final payment is due one week before the event. Failure to pay the event in full can result in cancellation of services, with no refund issued back to the host.

What is the zoo's weather policy? What is its cancellation policy?

- Events take place rain or shine, so you never have to worry about refunds or rescheduling! Our zoo is open for you.
- The actual event celebration takes place under a covered venue. The rest of your zoo visit may utilize open-air spaces, so please dress in tune with the forecast.
- While RWPZ makes every effort to carry out your event as planned, please note some arrangements may be weather-dependent and/or not available year-round. This includes animal encounters, face painting and more. Roger Williams Park Zoo will notify hosts of the cancellation or weather-dependent feature feasibility as soon as possible, but some decisions may not be available until last-minute. In the same vein, RWPZ reserves the right to relocate or cancel any scheduled event and/or event features, especially but not exclusively based on current or forecasted weather conditions. If RWPZ cancels your experience or event, you will have the option for a refund and/or reschedule. Otherwise, all fees are non-refundable – including if a host cancels the event and/or event features and/or for any overpayments.

Payment schedule:

- DUE TODAY: Completed contract plus venue deposit.
- DUE 7 DAYS BEFORE EVENT: Final headcount is required 7 days before the event. At this time, payment for admission and any extras (mascot, favor bags, et cetera) will be due in full.
- CATERING: A separate deposit is required to book your catering arrangements. Payments will be made directly to SSA and as a separate vendor, their policies and payment schedule may vary. Please be sure to ask for more information.

General Policies:

- General information: All reservations are scheduled on a first-come, first-serve basis. Events are not scheduled until both a contract and payment have been received and processed and the host (also known as the client) receives a confirmation from the zoo.
- The venues: During a daytime outing, Roger Williams Park Zoo ("RWPZ") provides the venue, tables, and seating (which may vary between picnic tables and tables/chairs based on the selected venue). A zoo ambassador will also be present to ensure the event is running smoothly.
 - Most event spaces are outdoor tented locations. The tents are unenclosed.
 - Some venues may be located up to 15 minutes away from the zoo's main entrance. All guests/hosts/vendors will enter through the zoo's main entrance.
 - Catering services are not included and can be added for additional fee(s). If the event has contracted the on-site caterer for catering services, eco-friendly "party goods" (including cups, plates, napkins, utensils, and tablecloths) may be included, as applicable- please ask for full information.
- COVID Policies: COVID regulations change frequently, visit rwpzoo.org/reopen for current masking and safety information. Everyone should bring a mask that covers their face and mouth. For animal health reasons, some animal experiences or exhibits require ALL visitors to wear masks (regardless of vaccination status or medical condition).
- What to expect/bring: The client (hereby referred to as "host") is responsible for providing and transporting any items s/he brings in, including, food, activities, décor and games. Please be advised that while the ambassador is there to assist you, ambassadors may not be authorized/permitted to transport items (particularly valuable or delicate items, including gifts or cake) through the zoo, especially without a host present. This is to ensure all items reach their destination securely and to your satisfaction. Hosts are responsible for storing all additional food and event supplies - public refrigeration and storage spaces are not available. Please note, if ordering catering through our on-site partner, SSA, no outside food (except for cake or cupcakes) is allowed, for liability reasons. A limited number of items are not allowed on zoo grounds (including but not limited to balloons, pinatas, and confetti not allowed for animal safety reasons; outside alcohol is not permitted; ask for more information about arranging bar services through the zoo's caterer). RWPZ will do its best to inform the host in advance and also support the host throughout the planning process and the actual event.
- Timeframes: Hosts can have access to the venue 30 minutes before your designated rental time for setup and 30 minutes afterwards for breakdown. If you want more time, please contact the Group Sales Department – we can speak to pricing and availability. The pricing detailed on this contract refers to events occurring during the zoo's normal hours of operation (which varies by season). However, RWPZ can accommodate events before the zoo opens to the public - events scheduling their start times (including setup/breakdown) before our normal hours of operation require approval and are subject to an additional pre-open hours fee (ask for information)
- Admission is required: Hosts must purchase tickets for every guest, per zoo policy (member admissions not available/accepted for event attendees). Any guests exceeding the maximum allowed capacity will be turned away and the event will be ineligible for any refunds.
- Weather policy: Events take place "rain or shine" and are not typically cancelled due to inclement weather. However, RWPZ reserves the right to relocate or cancel any scheduled event and/or event features, especially but not exclusively based on current or forecasted weather conditions. While RWPZ makes every effort to carry out your event as planned, please note some arrangements may be weather-dependent and/or not available year-round and some are weather-dependent. This includes animal encounters/features, bounce house, and more. Roger Williams Park Zoo will notify hosts of the cancellation or weather-dependent feature feasibility as soon as possible, often 48-72 hours before the event, when the forecast is clear. If Roger Williams Park Zoo must cancel any animal encounters, events, and/or add-on features, the payments will be refunded to the client. If the host cancels any features and/or the event, all payments are non-refundable.
- Exhibit availability, feature availability, and special notes: Exhibit availability can vary by season. Availability can also be affected by both planned and unplanned circumstance. As the zoo expands and adds new features, please be aware that construction can limit some access. Refunds are not granted if exhibit(s) or area(s) are unavailable.

- Uncatered events: RWPZ staff coordinates with event hosts to set-up tables and chairs for un-catered events. An un-catered event is defined as any event without a formal full-service buffet contracted through the zoo's on-site catering partner, SSA.
 - What is supplied to you: The zoo can supply no more than 20 tables and up to 160 chairs for each uncatered event at no additional cost (fewer tables may be available depending on other on-site needs). This includes any and all chairs utilized by the event, including but not limited to registration areas, vendors, and sponsor tables.
 - Ordering more equipment: If an event needs more equipment (including but not limited to tables and chairs), they will be arranged/purchased by the client via a third-party vendor company.
 - RWPZ can setup equipment for your event. To do so, additional fees apply: After the first 20 tables and/or first 160 chairs, fees are as follows: $5 per table and $2 per chair. The set-up fee is due with final payment seven days before the event.
 - The zoo must preapprove your arrangements. Please see preapproval section below for full information.
- Arrangements that require preapproval: Preapproval from RWPZ is required for all arrangements beyond this contract, including time extensions and outside vendors. This includes but is not limited to DJs, food deliveries, and party planners. Any events wishing to make use of a professional catering company other than the on-site catering partner are subject to an additional outside catering fee.
 - RWPZ will at least require you submit the following at least 30 days before your event before preapproval can be considered: vendor order invoice(s), delivery date/time (if applicable), pickup date/time (if applicable), and the vendor's day-of contact information.
 - Changes made within 30 days of the event are each subject to a $100 adjustment fee. RWPZ reserves the right to deny any arrangements for any reasons. At times, additional fees may be required of the client to offset staffing costs of zoo employees receiving and/or managing the delivery – RWPZ will inform you of these costs once your information is submitted. If you do not want to incur these additional costs, your request may be denied. Full policy is available upon request.
- If the client cancels the event for any reason, he/she is not entitled to any refunds, as all payments are non-refundable. Moreover, if the cancellation is made less than 7 days before the event is scheduled to take place, the client must pay all still pay any/all remaining fees owed to the zoo (this includes any features ordered at time of booking and/or since time of booking, including venue rental fees, animal features, activity rentals, etc.). This balance is not waived just because the client has chosen to cancel the event and must be paid within 24 hours of the cancellation. Failure to do so may result in additional delinquent/penalty fees at the zoo's discretion.
- All zoo policies apply, including but not limited to those posted on the website, zoo grounds, and relayed by any zoo employee/representative.
